

Governor Charlie Baker visits HS

Governor Charlie Baker, Education Secretary James Peyser, and Early Education and Care (EEC) Commissioner Thomas Weber visited Greater Lawrence Community Action Council, Inc., Head Start program on Wednesday, May 24th, 2017 to read to preschoolers "I Took the Moon for a Walk" by Carolyn Curtis, as well as meet with early education teachers. Governor Baker discussed child care, workforce recruitment issues facing the program and the importance of exposing students to STEM curriculum at an early age as they do at GLCAC, where young children build miniature bridges and learn math skills.
