

Congresswoman Niki Tsongas

Congresswoman Niki Tsongas visited GLCAC on Friday, October 28th, for discussions about the organization’s services; its successes and what resources it needed to help continue serving residents. The GLCAC’s Head Start program was among the many successes highlighted with the Congresswoman. During Congresswoman Tsongas’s visit, she met with Evelyn Friedman (Executive Director), Rony Adams (Division Director of Early Learning) and Sonia Santana (Operations Manager). Niki Tsongas read “The Pigeon Wants a Puppy”, to the Head Start children and talked about her role as a member of Congress.
